CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

To enable you to render bids to us for the manufacture of certain machinery for our account, we will submit to you certain drawings, documents and information. Receipt of such information is to be acknowledged by you promptly upon delivery to you. We may or may not accept any or all of your bids at our sole discretion.

You acknowledge: (I) our confidential relationship, (II) that the information contained in the submitted documents, as well as information that we disclose to you from time to time, whether by documents or otherwise, that will be confidential; (III) that all such information constitute proprietary trade secrets and technological secrets and technological know-how owned by us.

You shall not disclose any such information to any person or company (whether or not affiliated with you) except to certain select employees. You will do nothing which could impair the value or confidential nature of such information.

You further undertake not to use such information for any purpose other than as stated above or agreed to by us in writing.

No copies or transactions, in whole or part, are to be made of any such information except by our advance written permission. All documents submitted by us to you are to be returned immediately to us at our request. No copies or summaries of such information are to be retained by you, nor any records of such information, such as by computer storage.

During the term of the Agreement, you will not manufacture, design or render advice to any party concerning machinery at present or in the future included in the manufacturing program of Carver Machine Works, Inc.

The term of this Agreement shall be from the date hereof through the date ending ten (10) years after our last disclosure to you.

If any provisions of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable under any applicable law, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
